THE METROPOLITAN WINNER.

Bowling Brook, the winner of the Metropolitan Handicap at Morris Park yesterday is a bay colt by the Epsom Derby winner of 1888, Ayrshire, dam Vacation, by Tom Ochiltree. Some years back the Morris family adopted the expedient of sending American mares over to England to mate with the most fashionable English stallions. Bowling Brook is one of the results. Last year he started in eight races. He showed good form but only won a single race. In that race however, the first part of the Double Event, he defeated the mighty Hamburg at even weights. The race yesterday was marked by one peculiarity, two 3-year-olds running one-two, a rare occurrence in the history of high-class spring handicaps.

The history of the Metropolitan Handicap is as follows:

Year.	Winner	Wt.	Jockey	Val.	Time	Track
1891	Tristan.....	114	G. Taylor	$17300	1:51 1/2	Freehold

ST. LOUIS HORSE GOSSIP.

Discussing the big meeting which begins at St. Louis next Saturday the Republic says:

"There will be surplus of horses at the Fair Grounds the coming season. Every available stall has been taken, and President Aull does not know what to do with some of the new arrivals. Over 200 new stalls were put up in the old carriage hall, and every one of them is now filled. James Arthur, with Fervor and Scottish Grit; W W Darden, with Trombone, Leo Planter, The Brewer and High Born Lady; Tom Hurns, with Helen Wren and Uncle Jim, and W D Sippy, with Assignee, Whirlaway and Merry Monarch, are quartered there. The stable yard was filled a week ago. Eugene Leigh's stable arrived from Cincinnati yesterday. Ben Leigh has charge of the string, which includes the fast 2-year-old filly, Satin Slipper. Jockey A. Thompson came over to ride for the stable. Thompson had one of his legs cut off by a Chicago electric car last spring, and now rides with a wooden substitute.

"Jockey John Gardner came over with the Cincinnati contingent. It is probable that he will ride for J. Huffman. Gardner is a clever rider. He rode for the Kendall Stable three years ago and was here with Eugene Leigh two years ago.

"Will Darden has a nice colt in Leo Planter, a fine-looking, big bay, by Leonatus—Plantress, the dam of Pioneer. Leo Planter won two creditable races at Memphis and will be a starter in several events at the Fair Grounds.

"Darden also has a full sister to the speedy Libertine that is promising. She is a large bay, with plenty of speed. Mr. Darden intends to save her for one of the early 2-year-old stakes. Another promising horse in the Darden stable is a 3-year-old brother to the famous Algol. This colt is still a maiden, having never been started. He was sick all last year. He is a bay in color. Algol is a chestnut.

"I think Brewer Schorr has the best race horse in America at a mile or under in Algol, the 4-year-old son of Top Gallant," said Frank Leigh yesterday. "His turn of speed is simply marvelous, and if he don't win the Metropolitan at Morris Park to-day, I will be greatly disappointed. I thought I had a pretty fast horse in H.S. Tobacco, but Algol gave him a ton of weight and made him look like a selling plater. Macy is a pretty handy horse, but Algol can lose him. I would sooner have the Top Gallant horse than any other two performers in the Schorr stable, not even excepting Lieber Karl, Timemaker or Presbyterian."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Recently Mr. T. H. Cooke claimed Chihuahua, then the property of Edward Corrigan, out of a selling race at Ingleside. It is now probable that in moments devoted to reflection over things already in the registry of the past Mr. T. H. Cooke is forced to pronounce his action in that particular case hasty and ill-advised. At least the following from a San Francisco paper of May 3 would justify such an inference. "At a meeting of the P. C. J. C. Stewards last night T. H. Cooke and his horses, Chihuahua and Break o'Day, were ruled off the track. The infraction of rule 156 of the American Turf Congress relating to persons offering to or entering into an agreement to bid or not to bid on the winner of a selling race was the cause of his punishment. The principal testimony against club officials say he was abusive and boisterous. At any rate he was expelled from the grounds. Hence the suit for damages."

The stake book for the spring meeting of the Cincinnati Jockey Club (Oakley) is out. Besides the list of fixed events for the spring of 1898 the book contains the names of the officials who will preside at Oakley during the coming meeting, which opens on May 21 and continues until June 7, fifteen days in all. The judges will be Captain J. H. Rees, of Memphis; Charles F. McLean, of this city, and Secretary Charles F. Price, of the Louisville Jockey Club. The Board of Governors will be composed of the following gentlemen: G. T. Miller, E. N. Roth, E. P. Anderson, J. L. Woods, H. M. Lay, Nicholas Longworth, Walter F. Mitchell and Dwight Kinney. The stewards are M. S. Simonton, A. S. Laboid and George R. Griffith. James F. Caldwell will handle the flag. Seven stakes are to be decided at the meeting, beginning with the Oakley Derby on the opening day.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

BOWLING BROOK, B. C. 3, BY AYRESHIRE—VACATION.

Cooke was an affidavit made by J. B. Earnshaw. This sets forth that Cooke approached him on April 26 to run up a horse owned by Ed Corrigan and divide the run-up money. The proffer was declined.

A cranky Memphis patron of racing is not pleased with the judicial ways of Col. M. Lewis Clark and has resorted to the courts in an effort to prove that some of the rotund Kentuckian's edicts should be wiped from the slate. The case is thus set out in a dispatch from Memphis: "What may be a very interesting suit has begun in the Circuit Court. The defendant named is the New Memphis Jockey Club, and the complainant is A. Frost, a citizen of Memphis. Frost's grounds are somewhat peculiar, and may be the subject of a very interesting point of law. He claims that he was present at Montgomery Park on April 26 at the recent race meeting, when Foucon was programmed to ride Pearl Barnes. When the horses were going to the post Judge M. Lewis Clark ordered Foucon to dismount and placed Tommy Burns in the saddle. The race was run, and the horse that complainant had bet on was beaten by Burns on Pearl Barnes. Frost states that he immediately protested against the action of the presiding judge in changing the jockeys. The

The St. Louis Derby of this year is at a mile and half. Its terms are $50 entrance, half forfeit, or only $10 if declared January 1, with $5,000 added, of which $1,000 goes to the second horse, $500 to the third and the fourth saves his stake. Sixty-five of the 149 entered were declared January 1. On the basis of ten starters the race will net the winner the tempting sum of $7,450. And it may be set down in advance that if Bannockburn goes to the post fit and well next St. Louis Derby day and is of the class he is supposed to be the other horses entered that may be sent to the post will simply contend for second and third money. The main prize is Bannockburn's now. For, owing to the penalties and allowances provided for in the conditions of the race, Lieber Karl will have to carry 127 pounds and Plaudit 125, while Bannockburn, with an allowance of twenty pounds, gets in at 102. It is apparent Bannockburn's temporary backset in training and racing may not be unattended by solace for the worthy Mr. McGuigan.

THE INITIAL NAME RULE.

The last clause of paragraph 70 of American Racing Rules, which govern all Turf Congress tracks, reads: "Neither initials nor numerals will be considered or accepted as a name for horses foaled after December 31, 1896."

PRETTY RACING AT LAKESIDE.

There was some keen racing at Lakeside Saturday, and a big crowd enjoyed it. There were some side lights to the action, notably the defeat of Imp by Abuse in an effervescent race. It was not out of line for Abuse, unless one had considered his last race, last odds and the prices of the present. He simply outran Imp five furlongs in 1:01. 'Gene Leigh's recent acquisition, Duke of Haven, is a handy horse. He beat a good field in 1:14. He did it, too, in an oily sort of way that suggested reserve power.

Pop Dixon's game victory over Joe Shelby in the nine furlong race was the other feature of the afternoon's racing.

The latter was a beauty to the eye. All down the back stretch the field was in a contending bunch. On the far turn Harry Shannon, the post favorite, retired, and Pop Dixon, getting through on the inside, opened up a big gap. About the bend for home Joe Shelby closed on him and the pair fought it out the entire length of the stretch. Below the eighth pole Joe Shelby seemed to be winning, but Turner, persevering on Pop Dixon, managed to win a pretty race by a scant neck. W. H. Laird raised Pop Dixon $300 over his entered price. The colt races in W. E. Fielding's name and in "Tony" McCafferty's stable. After the run up McCafferty claimed Joe Shelby and the latter's owner, Dave Waldo, to get even, put in a claim for Harry Shannon.

The Abuse shock came out of the fifth race. He was in with Imp, Richard J and other fast sprinters. Bloss had the mount, and getting Abuse away flying, saved ground at every turn and won in a drive by two lengths from Imp. Peter McCue showed marvelous speed.

Eugene Leigh had a good day. He took the two-year-old race with Kentucky Colonel and also scored with Duke of Haven.

The agricultural gentleman, late of Kentucky, just burned up the ring over the Duke of Haven. He had to pay $400 out of his spoils as a tribute to Mr. Laird under the financial conditions of the race.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A telegram from Versailles, Ky., May 6, says: "Dr. John D. Neet's famous mare, Cinderella, foaled a brown filly by Spendthrift, half sister to the Derby winner, Plaudit, and full sister to Hastings, the $37,000 colt. This is Cinderella's first filly, she having previously dropped nine colts in as many years.

The Calender contains the official announcement that W. C. Whitney has leased the running qualities of Loki, Lou Bramble, Ruskin, King Bermuda, Jean Ingelow, Shillalagh, Sir Vassar, Lady Sneerwell, Gadfly, Shrew and Right of Way to Sydney Paget for the year 1898.

The California Jockey Club officials have followed up the action of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club stewards by removing the edict of suspension against H. M. Mason, trainer of Lobos, but it is intimated no entries from Mason will be received in the future.

H. Woodford has turned Pink Coat over to Pat Dunne for training. Pink Coat was a good 2-year-old, winning the Harold Stakes at Latonia among other races, and may cut quite a figure later on in the season.

Jimmy McDonald, manager of the Menlo Stock Farm, says that one of the best looking yearlings in California is a half-sister to Valencienne. The youngster is by the unbeaten Ormonde.

Tom Butler of Butte has leased the racing qualities of Negligence and Yule to H. L. Frank. They will be raced on the Montana circuit.

Winner—Ch. f. by St. Carlo—Miss Annie.
Start fair. Won easily and all the way. Page was best and most lucky. Fretter ran a good race. He is fit and ran better than in his last. Britomartis was cut off at start and on the stretch turn. Is good, and made up much ground under a bad ride. Crossmolina was poorly ridden. She does not like a route. Watch Polka. Showed a lot of speed.
Scratched—Practice, 108; Simi, 111; Uhler, 111.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Morello or Owas—Miss Pickwick.
Start fair. First four driving hard. El Moro was second best. He had a clear path, was well ridden and is fit. He is but a dasher though. Formella ran a good race, was cut off at start and not well managed. Likes a route and is ready for what he can do. York ran to the mark. He favors a distance and is fit. Was unlucky, bumped in back stretch and on stretch turn. Colonel Dan was best. Throw out his race on the basis of bad luck. Was cut off three times—sharply at the head of stretch. Bad riding caused his trouble. Atticus ran a good race. Got away slowly.
Scratched—Alvin E, 104.

Winner—Br. c. by Pirate of Penzance—Miss Thomas.
Start fair. The five leaders were all doing their best at the end. Malay's race was to the line. He was lucky, likes a route, is game and worth following. Banewor's was below the mark. She is but a dasher. She had no excuses today. E Come seemed best. He had all the hard luck of the race. Was cut off as he was winning near the finish. Keep him on the tab. La Parasseuse was used too much and stopped in the final pinch. She and Ojai ran each other to pieces. Others outclassed.

Winner—Blk. h. 5, by Jim Love—Zar.
Start good. Won ridden out. The winner was well managed and lucky and is as good as he can be. Robair was the best, but was inefficiently handled. Is in good form. Polish was short. Will be improved by the race and should win soon. Del Paso was badly ridden, besides being cut off on the first and stretch turns. Claudius is best suited by a longer route. Metairie and Widow Jones did not run to their best mark.
Scratched—Hermanita, 106; Fort Augustus, 107; Cromwell, 111.

Winner—Ch. m. 5, by Richmond—La Cigale.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won well in hand; the next three were driving. The best horse won. Mitt Boyken, though, had a lot of bad luck. She was away poorly, obliged to go around her field and wretchedly ridden. Incetatus was a bad horse. He caused the delay at the post, but got away flying and had no excuses. Stars and Stripes and Jay Bird were badly interfered with at the start. Both were obliged to pull up. Santa Cruz did well as far as he went. He was jostled some on the far turn, but did the best he could. It was a bad lot.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Luke Blackburn—Miss Fairfax.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a mild drive; second, third and fourth driving harder. Lord Fairfax was best handled. He was away well, avoided all interference and skinned the rail on the turn. The colt was dead willing to stop at the sixteenth pole and only strong handling held him together. Dousterswivel was game. He was under punishment throughout and would have won had the race been three-quarters. Nivoce did well. He was interfered with often and none too well handled. Tenoce finished strong. Manona showed some speed between points. Spanish Princess ran all around her field. She is speedy but faint hearted and was sprawling all over in the stretch. Little Sadie was short.
Scratched—Chiquita II, 90; Fay Belle, 105.
